

Journey's End

A Wanderer's Lament

Here we are together again,
After many years apart,
To rekindle long lost friendships
To talk about times past.

The lessons have been hard.
And the path enduring
But we have conquered all
And discovered our true heart

We have realised the same lessons
And now the time has come to share,
Reminisce and prepare

We are one, we are so alike,
We are images to each other.
What we say, what we do
Reflects the essence of our souls

Our meeting will bring direction at last
We have found reason for living, for our suffering
A reason for caring and for loving.

Don't be afraid, see beyond time
We are here to reap the rewards of our journey
So let's come together at last in mutual understanding
And acknowledge our friendships anew.

The search is over
Have vision, take courage,
Have foresight, and find faith
For all that we have dreamt of is soon to take place.

Together we will pave new directions
And establish a new order – start a new wave.
We will fulfil our dreams
And build a new reality

Come let's hold hands with strength and support
And ride together in trust to our hope of tomorrow

Our union is now eternal and complete - never again shall we be asked to part.

The Universe sings in jubilation
For our journeys end
At last.....
